

Abuse is usually committed by strangers

Children make up stories of abuse

Neglect is as harmful to a child as physical, sexual or emotional abuse

Girls are abused more often than boys

Domestic abuse of an adult does not affect the children in the same

Abuse is sometimes the fault of the child's behaviour or circumstances

In some cultures it's ok to use physically abusive forms of discipline

Disabled children are more likely to be abused

Children do not abuse other children